The Odyssey Staff of 1965 dedicates, with pleasure, the 1965 Odyssey to the communities of Salome High School: Salome, Wenden, Quartzsite, Alamo, Vicksburg, Bouse, and Hope.

Principal

It seems most fitting that the yearbook staff dedicate this year's annual to those communities sending students to our high school; for it is to these communities that we must look for many of the influences that shape the students, who in turn, shape and build our school community.

We hope that in dedicating this book to those communities that it may express in some small way our appreciation for all that the members of these communities have done.

Editor

Now it's over. The book is finished, at least the work is completed. Now comes e time for thanks, memories, and hope. My sincere thanks goes to my staff and iss Gallardo for all the time and hard work they put forth to make it a success. emories of past events will come fondly into view as I leaf through my annual in ars to come. Hope, I hope that you, the student body will enjoy YOUR annual as uch as I.

POEMS ON THE LOOSE BY MOTHER GOOSE

RALPH Armstrong was an athlete,
the best in all the town,
but JAMES Rogers made him laugh
because James is a clown.

GARY had a motor scooter
that sometimes went putt putt.
He pushed it all the way to school
because he was a nut.
"Why do you look like Alley Oop?"
the Seniors all did cry.
"Because he never cut his hair,"
was the quick reply.

BILLY Sweetland was the King,
ELAINE was his Queen,
Homecoming was their Kingdom,
but now it's all a dream.
We sang and danced the night away
until the day was new,
but another time has come
and we must live it too.

Rub a dub dub
one man in a tub
and who do you think he be?
Why it's NORMAN McCauley with his horn-rimmed glasses too shy to cry out "Help me."

HENRY'S gone, forevermore;
Quoth the Raven, "Nevermore."

In a lonely shack
by the railroad track
a little brat was born.
Curly black hair was his adorn.
Oh! What the heck!
You know he was a wreck.
His parents expected a baby
but instead was born a LUPE.

JEWELL Rogers was a happy girl;
she smiled the day away.
She thoroughly enjoyed herself and chased the clouds away.

She came to us from California.
Now all she dreams of is her George.
Yes! This Alumnus she does cherish.
With this Alumnus she wants marriage.
She's here to stay so let's rejoice!
Our Dearest, Dearest Brown-eyed JOYCE.

VICKIE, Vickie, Vickie Scott.
This rhyme is short and has no plot.
Tho you are smarter than most men,
this verse has stopped at the very end.

CARLOS Walker is a joker,
to this none can reply,
for to call him otherwise would surely be a lie.

Senior Will

Me (excuse me), I, CARLOS WALKER, will my, on second thought maybe I don't, oh, I might as well, I will my ability to gyrate like James Rogers to Joyce Runow.

I, VICTORIA SCOTT, once being of sound mind or body, I think, do hereby will thanks and appreciation to all who made it possible for me to graduate.

I, LUPE RODRIQUEZ, will my section on the Honor Roll to Tiny Williams and my position in the cafeteria to Bongo Brain.

I, NORMAN MC CAULEY, hereby will my brain to be divided between Everett Cowell and Orley Dollar.

I, GARY BLAIR, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby will my basketball position to Tiny, and my ability to hate teachers to my little sister, and my ability to empty the trash to Frances Baird.

I, JOYCE RUNOW, hereby will my ability to ride a tricycle across stage to anyone who thinks they can do better.

I, RALPH ARMSTRONG, hereby will my great football ability to Robin Grumbles and all my troubles to Bill Farr.

I, JAMES ROGERS, hereby will my ability to be a clown and goofball to John Rainey and my great ability to play the drums to Randy Michels.

I, WILLIAM SWEETLAND, hereby will my great ability to study Physics to Robin Grumbles and my old ragged, torn football jersey to Susie Osmus.

I, ELAINE CONLEY, do hereby will my ability to find a boyfriend to all the freshmen girls.

I, JEWELL ROGERS, hereby will my ability to finish high school to Rose Rodriquez.

"No More Homework"

"No More Homework", the greatest colossus to ever come across the Salome High stage, with its cast of thousands and the greatest assemblage of stars ever gathered under one roof, was the most successful class production ever to come into being (as a matter of fact, it was the only one to ever actually hit the stage). After the presentation in Salome it was taken to Parker at the request of Mr. Emmett Sims, the district principal.

"The World's Mine Oyster . . . !"

ARIZONA Public Service COMPANY

so Shakespeare said.

The world is your oyster. Open it with minimum effort, savor the brief pleasure...and that's it! But if you recognize it as an opportunity, insert the grain of ambition and nurture it with enthusiastic purpose, your oyster will reward you with a precious pearl.

It's your oyster, your world. What you do with it is up to you.
